

Manufacturing indaba on

THE fifth annual Manufacturing Indaba will take place at the Johannesburg Sandton Convention Centre in the economic hub of Africa on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The event will provide current and prospective manufacturers from across sub-Saharan Africa with an exciting and collaborative platform from which they can develop indispensable networks with other key industry players.

This year's conference aims to provide the region's industry players with opportunities to establish and secure valuable relationships with relevant stakeholders in the sector. – Shonisani Tshikalange
